

WABA Membership Promotion Policy

Updated 07-08-2019

WABA's 3 in 1 Membership includes promotional opportunities.
WABA would like to support our members companies' special events throughout the year!

MEMBER to MEMBER Email Blast

WABA members are welcome to send their upcoming companies' events to be added in our email blast.

- Adequate time before event takes place must happen to ensure it is included in the email blast.
- Companies event flyer or details must be provided by the requesting member
- The company that the member is wishing to promote must be the company registered with that members membership.

Annual Sponsor Membership Promotion

Annual Sponsors receive the listed promotional opportunities for that company that are listed with the WABA Sponsorship opportunity selected.

-Levels of sponsorships may include Facebook advertisement, website advertisement with WABA.

Advertisement & Promotional Material Guidelines

- WABA is not liable for posting wrong information that was provided by the company to post, and will not be blamed for incorrect information being provided
- Flyers or Promotional material must not be derogatory, offensive or discriminating or it will NOT be shared.
- Advertising & Promotional material provided by your company gives WABA permission to use and share promotion without receiving any copywrite penalties.
- Promotion is not guaranteed to be posted or shared unless information is received in a timely matter.

WABA Membership MUST be in good standing and ACTIVE.